Greetings from the President

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to welcome you to the 29th Annual Meeting and Clinical Symposium of the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers' Society. The Convention Committee, headed by Eric Lippincott, has worked tirelessly to put together a great meeting. I hope you have taken advantage of the educational opportunities put together by program co-directors Jody Preische and Jason Scibek, enjoyed the social events by Jessica Baum and enjoyed your time in the exhibit hall, coordinated by Matt Keller. Also involved in the convention were Elizabeth Gulich, Registration Director, Mike Porter, Site Coordinator and Josh Drouin, Audio-Visual Director. When you see these individuals please thank them for all their efforts and hard work!

Today, we will recognize our future by giving four scholarships to deserving athletic training students. Earlier this year, three scholarships were presented. Jari Haile, of Duquesne University and Robyn Weidner of California University of Pennsylvania, were the recipients of the Southwest River Run Scholarship - a joint venture with UPMC and PATS. Camille Valvano, of Kings College, received the Northeast Pennsylvania Athletic Training scholarship. The bond between physician and athletic trainer in the Commonwealth has never been stronger. We will highlight this relationship with the presentation of the Team Physician Award. We will also thank outgoing Board of Directors for their service to the Society and present a Service Award to an individual that has made multiple contributions to PATS over the years.

Today we induct the Class of 2009 into the Pennsylvania Athletic Training Hall of Fame: John Hauth, EdD, ATC and Steven Heckler, MS, ATC. Both of these individuals have impacted the profession in Pennsylvania in numerous ways. They both have served our Society in leadership positions and mentored our current and future leaders. On behalf of the athletic trainers in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, CONGRATULATIONS!

Lastly, please welcome our newest Board members, Jody Preische (Secretary), Kathy Wright (Southeastern Representative) and Guy Sanchioli (Southwestern Representative). If you see any of these new Board members, please be sure to congratulate them and thank them for their future service to PATS. I speak for all the members of the Board when I say it is an honor and a privilege to serve our Society and its members.

Sincerely,

Thomas F. West, President

CLOSING REMARKS

John M. Hauth, EdD, ATC

John Hauth has a legacy of strong values and a great work ethic that was passed to him from his parents and inspired by his mentors during his professional development. John was motivated in the classroom by the likes of Lois Wagner and John Thatcher while completing his undergraduate work in Athletic Training at East Stroudsburg University (1983). John shows his love for the profession through his work ethic and his concern and care for his students' physical and mental well being. There will always be a caring mentor at ESU as long as John Hauth is still there. After ESU, John went on to complete his Master's Degree at the University of Arizona where he studied under the tutelage of Gary DeLorge and worked in one of the first high school outreach programs. As John's career developed and after returning to ESU (1985), he pursued advanced study and completed his doctoral Degree from the University of Sarasota. His dissertation topic was "The Incidence of Sexual Harassment Among Students Enrolled in CAAHEP-Accredited Athletic Training Programs," again, showing his concern for students.

Upon arriving at ESU, he was asked to serve on the Public Relations committee of PATS. Not long after, he initiated the publication of the PATS Newsletter. The objective of this publication was to keep the general public and the professionals up-to-date on the advocacy efforts of the field of Athletic Training in Pennsylvania. In 1987, he was asked to chair the Membership Committee and was responsible for technology upgrades that allowed the organization to better utilize the database it already had. At the same time, John served as Parliamentarian for the PATS Board of Directors, and was responsible for raising awareness of PATS current issues. In 1991, he was appointed to the Long Range Planning Committee, and in 1992, he was elected President Elect. During his time as President Elect, President and PAST President, John worked to establish the Governor's first Athletic Training Week, developed the PATS Scholarships, and made upgrades in all PATS publications. He pursued legislative efforts for a separate bill for the licensure of Athletic Trainers. John received help and guidance from his peers including, Joe Iezzi, Barry McGlumphy, Paula Turocy, Steve Heckler, Sandy Bush, and many more. John served Pennsylvania as our Representative for the EATA and the NATA. He has also been very active as an organizer of the NATA Educators' Conference.

John has been published in many peer-reviewed journals and has presented at numerous PATS, EATA and NATA Conventions and Symposia. He has advised numerous graduate research projects and Master's Theses. John has received grants from national organizations and ESU over his twenty-three year tenure. He willingly volunteers to speak and advocate his support for national and local health organizations. He has conducted workshops for high school and age-group coaches in support of safe athletics. John has been awarded the PATS Service Award, PATS Board of Service Award, PATS Special Recognition Award (Bills 371 & 371), NATA 25 Year Award, and membership in the Iota Tau Alpha-Athletic Training honorary Fraternity.

John is married to Lynn (1985) and has three children, Amanda, Kendall, and Conner. Today, John, we honor you for your dedication, professionalism, and especially, caring for family, athletes, advisees, students, and peers.

Steven J. Heckler, MS, ATC

Steve is a native of Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and was influenced at an early age by two local ATCs who are both Hall of Famers: Bruce Vogel song at Dickinson College and Dick Burkholder at Carlisle High School. In 1968, Steve entered West Chester State College where he learned from Hall of Famer Phil Donley. Immediately, following his graduation in 1972, Steve was hired as the youngest faculty member at Hamilton, a private, Liberal Arts College in upstate New York, where he served as both the head athletic trainer and head baseball coach for three years.

In 1975, Steve was hired as the head ATC, and later, Director of Sports Medicine at Shippensburg

University where he worked for the next twenty-seven years. Throughout that time, Steve mentored numerous undergraduates in his internship program sending them to West Chester's summer athletic training program. He also counseled and mentored over fifty graduate students during his tenure. Many of Steve's undergraduate and graduate students have taken leadership roles throughout our state and nation.

Steve was the very first full-time certified athletic trainer hired at Shippensburg University. Shippensburg experienced constant, dramatic growth in its sports medicine facilities over his career there. The first act Steve undertook in 1975 was to make his facility accessible to female student-athletes. Steve served as medical coordinator for numerous athletic events, such as, twenty years for various PIAA championships, ten years for the PA Senior Games, two years for the Big 33 Football Classic, and was featured along with Dr. Mike Cordas on the popular TV series, Emergency 911, seen by twenty-million viewers.

Steve served in many capacities within PATS. He was a member of the Honors & Awards and Public Relations committees, co-founded our popular Golf Tournament, which created our first student scholarship award, and was later elected president. As President, Steve was instrumental in our society's re-organization through increased regional representation, the student symposium, our convention, and the creation of the Pennsylvania Athletic Training Hall of Fame. His most important contribution was to our decade-long battle for a new, modern practice act. Along with many others, Steve's tireless efforts, contributions and leadership in Harrisburg and elsewhere helped lead to passage of the 2001 law we work under today. Even after seven years of retirement, Steve still serves PATS on our Long Range Planning committee, and continues to mentor former students and colleagues.

Steve is honored for his promotion of diversity and his involvement, loyalty and dedication to the profession of athletic training.

Steve and his wife, Vonnie, reside in Florida, not far from the Gulf of Mexico. They are the proud parents of two daughters, Bethany and Jennifer.

"PHILLIP B. DONLEY" STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

J. Luke Pryor

Luke is a May 2009 graduate of Lock Haven University. He has received numerous academic awards including the NATA Research and Education Foundation Scholarship and is involved in many volunteer athletic training student activities. His future plans entail graduate studies in AT/exercise physiology, and he would like to be involved in research as a health science faculty member. Luke has gained the PATS top-award honor by excelling clinically, academically, and in the areas of leadership and service.

RICHARD M. BURKHOLDER STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

Camille D. Valvano

Camille graduated from King's College in May of 2009. She has participated in activities such as PATS "Hike to Harrisburg" and Special Olympics and has been involved in professional presentations. She has received numerous academic honors and achievements including being the J&J, Inc. EATA Paul Grace Scholarship Award. Camille aspires to become a certified athletic trainer in the high school or collegiate setting.

PATS STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

Kyle P. Moore

Kyle is a May 2009 graduate of East Stroudsburg University. His academic scholarship includes a NATA Research and Education Foundation Scholarship and an EATA District II Scholarship Award. He has had varied clinical experiencing including working with the Wilkes-Barre Scranton Penguins AHL ice hockey team. Kyle has earned a graduate assistantship with the ice hockey team at Ohio University and is pursuing a career goal of becoming a certified athletic trainer for a professional hockey or football club.

DISTRICT II STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

Brandi L. Lockerman

Brandi is a senior at Slippery Rock University anticipating graduation in December of 2009. Brandi has taken an active role in athletic training student activities and has attended professional conferences and symposia. Brandi's career goals include continued professional involvement and promotion of the profession and its importance in sports and society by educating those who are physically active.

2009 PATS Team Physician Award

Edward D. Snell, MD

Dr. Snell received a BA in Mathematics & Chemistry from Franklin & Marshall College, a MS (honors) in Engineering Science from Columbia University, and a Doctor of Medicine from the Pennsylvania University College of Medicine. He was nominated by Paula Sammarone Turocy and Linda Platt Meyer. Through Allegheny Orthopaedic Associates, he serves as the Medical Director/Head Team Physician for Duquesne University, Head Team Physician for the Pittsburgh Pirates, and Team Physician of numerous Pittsburgh area high schools such as Carlynton, Franklin Regional, Avonworth, Bethel Park, Northgate, and Vincentian. Dr. Snell serves as a professor for Drexel University's School of Medicine, Duquesne University, and MCP-Hahnemann School of Medicine. He serves as the Medical Supervisor of the Special Olympics PA State Winter Games and serves on the PIAA Medical Advisory Committee. Dr. Snell is a true friend of athletic training and advocate of Pennsylvania's physically active.

PATS Team Physician Award Update

Harold G. Kretzing, MD

Although Dr. Kretzing has previously been awarded the PATS Team Physician's Award for his service to Dickinson College, we would like to update his award to include his 30+ years of active involvement with Carlisle High School. Described as both a mentor and friend by his nominating ATC, Richard M. Burkholder, Dr. Kretzing remains a long-time advocate of athletic training and the Commonwealth's physically active. Through his work with the Saddler Health Center, his career exudes volunteerism and community service. Dr. Kretzing began his practice in 1963 and is still a practicing physician in the Carlisle area.
